

Visual

Camera 2

:07

Audio

Welcome to TUTV Sports, your source for Hurricane Athletics

News! My name is _____.

And I'm _____.

Visual

Camera 1

2:20

Audio

The Golden Hurricane faced off against conference opponent UCF on Saturday. Tulsa rushed out to a 24-3 lead at halftime. Red-shirt freshman Ramadi Warren had 168 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries, while D'Angelo Brewer added 82 rushing yards for TU's second best rushing game of the season. Conner Floyd had two touchdown receptions in the first quarter. The Tulsa defense forced four turnovers and held UCF to 412 total yards. Michael Mudoh led the defense with his 20th career double-

Visual

Camera 1

(:56 second video)

Audio

figure tackle game, with 13 stops and his first interception of the season, which he returned for a touchdown.

Pause for video

The game was on the line in the third quarter when the Knights scored 17 consecutive points off of Tulsa turnovers and cut the Hurricane lead to just four points, ending the quarter at 24-20. Tulsa regained its momentum, however, to end the game 45-30. The Golden Hurricane record improved to 5-4 on the season and 2-3 in conference

Visual

Camera 1

Audio

while the Knights fell to 0-10. With one more win, the Hurricane will be bowl eligible for the first time since 2012. The team will take on the Cincinnati bearcats on the road next week and the game will be aired at 6:30 central time on ESPNNews.

Visual

Camera 3

1:00

Audio

Tulsa women's volleyball played Memphis on the road on Sunday afternoon. Senior middle blocker Ashley Hooper and junior outside hitter Rebecca Reeve both had 10 kills for the Golden Hurricane in this 3-1 win. Tulsa hit a .267 percentage while holding the tigers to a .138 attack percentage. Junior outside hitter Erica Bohannon recorded 23 kills, leading the Hurricane to victory. She now has the third highest number of career hits in school history, at 1,187. Combined with the game against Cincinnati on

Visual

Camera 3

Audio

Friday, in which she had 27 kills, Bohannon had a .333 hitting percentage on 50 kills for the weekend, earning her the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week.

The women will play at home this weekend, facing Houston at 1pm on Friday and Tulane at 1:30pm Sunday.

Visual

Camera 1

1:05

Audio

Tulsa men's and women's basketball started up this past week with exhibition games at home. The women faced Roger's State, beating them 85-51. Four Tulsa players scored in double figures for this win. Webster put up 19 points, Clark added 14, and both Grovey and Holmes posted 12 points each. The team shot 42 percent from the field and 59 percent from the free throw line. The team went on to an impressive 92-50 victory over Southeastern Oklahoma State. Again, Webster led the team in

Visual

Camera 1

1:18

Audio

scoring with 17 points.

The men started their season by defeating the Haskell Indian Nations, 87 to 62. Senior guard James Woodard led the team with 20 points and nine rebounds, and true freshman guard Sterling Taplin scored 12 points, including a pair of 3-pointers. TU forced 19 Haskell turnovers and shot 39 percent from the field. The women will play again tomorrow night at 7pm, facing Kansas State. The men will take on the University of Central Arkansas on Saturday at 4pm.

Visual

Camera 2

Audio

Chat about NBA or NFL, upcoming TU games, or the possibility of football going to a bowl game after two losing seasons

That's it for your Hurricane Sports
Forecast this week! I'm _____.

And I'm _____. Goodnight and good luck.